

Scofield Graduate School and Theological Seminary

Graduate Course Requirements/ Assignments (500-600 courses)

1. Reading Instructions:

Two Primary Textbooks: (One text is chosen by the school the other by the student)

Read the textbook (or e-text) in its entirety. Keep a dictionary nearby (for some reading you will need a Bible/Theological dictionary) and look up any words you are unfamiliar with.

Listen to all lectures, if applicable.

2. Assignments:

Notes: Take detailed notes for each chapter, approximately 3 pages in length. The notes should be sufficient enough, so that, the content of the chapter may be taught using the notes. The notes should demonstrate your ability to extract the major points the chapter.

3. Collateral Reading: 400 pages

4. Term Paper:

20 pages (double spaced). This DOES NOT include the Title Page, Bibliography, or scripture verses cited (see Term Paper guides for details).

5. Personal Development Assessment:

Write a 3-5 page paper describing how you personally benefited from the study of this course and how you have applied it practically to your ministry situation.
